Dear Parents and Carers,

Confidential Pupil Data Forms:

Thank you to all the parents who have completed and returned the forms. If you have not returned the forms, could they please be sent back to school by Monday 17th September. Thank you.

E-safety:

Poster Competition...

'Tis that time year again, time for the annual E-Safety Poster Competition. We would like children to design an A4 poster to promote E-safety at both home and school. It needs to be big and bold with a simple message... spelt correctly please. The winner with receive a £10.00 gift card, they will also have their design on display around the school, on the newsletter and on the website.

The closing date for the competition is Thursday 20th September.

DITTO Magazine...

As promised, please find below the link for the latest free online safety magazine – DITTO, that we subscribe to. A small edition this month as it's the beginning of the new school year, this addition looks at:

- Scroll Free September
- Scams (what happened to me)
- Gaming addiction
- TikTok app.

Roald Dahl Day:

On Friday 14th September, we will be celebrating 'Roald Dahl Day'. This is an event that the whole school has participated in, including staff! (Apart from Mrs Hawkins – who's already in character!) Children have come to school dressed as their favourite characters from any of the Roald Dahl books. We've used this opportunity to raise money for the Roald Dahl Foundation, each child and staff member wearing costume has made a donation (including Mrs Hawkins). We have raised an amazing £30.00, all money raised will go to the charity. Thank you.

Parent, Teacher and Friends Association (PTFA):

The PTFA will be holding their first meeting of the academic year Monday afternoon, the 17th September, 1.30pm at New York Primary school, the minutes of which will be attached to next week's newsletter. All parents automatically become members of the PTFA as soon as their children start school, so any help, ideas, volunteers would be greatly appreciated please. Please feel free to join us on Monday. All money raised by the PTFA is used to support the children at New York Primary school by funding new equipment, playground games, parties and school trips.
