Dear Parents and Carers,

Remembrance Day – 100th Anniversary of Armistice Day:

How we remember...

Remembrance is part of modern British life, culture and heritage. It becomes a particular feature of the calendar each year when public, private, formal and informal Remembrance events take place throughout the UK. Remembrance Sunday, which falls on the 11th November 2018, is a day for the nation to remember and honour those who have sacrificed themselves to secure and protect our freedom. Poppies and other items have been on sale in school, raising money for the Royal British Legion to distribute to those service/ex-service men and women, and families in need.

Here are a few of the events taking place this Sunday for the 100th anniversary of Armistice Day.

Sunday 11th November – Remembrance Sunday

- 10.45am Sibsey - Remembrance Service
- 10.45am Brothertoft - Remembrance Service
- 2.30pm Carrington - Remembrance Service
- 2.30pm Frithville - Remembrance Service
- 3.00pm Holland Fen & Langrick - Remembrance Service at Langrick
- 3.00pm Wildmore - Remembrance Service
- 6.00pm Kirton Holme - Remembrance Service followed by the Last Post and Lighting of a Beacon at 6.55pm
- 6.55pm Scrivelsby Estate - Last Post and Lighting of a Beacon

Football Tournament:

We took two team last Friday to the football tournament at the Peter Payne Astroturf. Considering we were by far the smallest schools, as each school entered a team this time, together with the fact that we were the only school to enter a mixed team, we did extremely well and I was very proud! The children didn't give up and kept trying, despite not winning many games. Well done all of you!

PTFA meeting:

Just a reminder please that there will be an extraordinary PTFA meeting on Wednesday 14th November at New York Primary School, 2.15pm. I will be chairing the meeting and there will be four key questions:

1. Does the school want, or need a PTFA?
2. What do we expect from our PTFA?
3. How are you willing to support the PTFA?
4. Should the Chocolate Bingo go ahead on Friday 30th November?

Even if you can't make the meeting please let me know your thoughts, either verbally or handwritten/email notes.
